

A photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright glow and long, shimmering reflections on the water. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds. In the foreground, the calm water of the beach is visible, with a few small buoys or markers scattered across it.

Treasure Our Elders

During my second year of nursing school our professor gave us a quiz. I breezed through the questions until I read the last one: "What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?" Surely this was a joke. I had seen the cleaning woman several times, but how would I know her name? I handed in my paper, leaving the last question blank. Before the class ended, one student asked if the last question would count toward our grade. "Absolutely," the professor said. "In your careers, you will meet many people. All are significant. They deserve your attention and care, even if all you do is smile and say hello."

I've never forgotten that lesson.
I also learned her name was Dorothy.
~Joann C. Jones

"Kindness is the language which the deaf can hear and the blind can see."
~Mark Twain

When I was young, I admired clever people. Now that I am old, I admire kind people.
~Abraham Joshua Heschel

Life expectancy would grow by leaps and bounds if green vegetables smelled as good as bacon.
~Doug Larson

How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong.
Because someday in your life you will have been all of these.
~George Washington Carver

The best portion of a good man's life - his little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love.
~William Wordsworth

You cannot do a kindness too soon, for you never know how soon it will be too late.
~Ralph Waldo Emerson

To be able under all circumstances to practice five things constitutes perfect virtue; these five things are gravity, generosity of soul, sincerity, earnestness and kindness.
~Confucius

Kind words can be short and easy to speak but their echoes are truly endless.
~Mother Teresa

Nobody grows old merely by living a number of years. We grow old by deserting our ideals. Years may wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul.
~Samuel Ullman

Growing old is mandatory; growing up is optional.
~Chili Davis

Convention - September 25 & 26, 2008

Featured Speakers

Kareen King

A concert to Celebrate our own Treasures

Join Brookside Retirement Community's own Kareen King as she kicks off the 2008 KHCA/KCAL Convention and Tradeshow with a concert that celebrates the lives of "our own". This concert provides the listener with an opportunity to walk in the shoes of those who have spent the last season of their lives in a nursing home. It shatters the negative stereotypes of older adults and gives voice to the human spirit no matter how aged the skin.

Dr. Richard Taylor

Living with Dementia

"In the eyes of many others, sometimes even the eyes of caregivers, I am seen as less than a complete someone. Just because my memory is failing me, just because a region of my brain is failing, just because I don't always think like you do, nor do I remember as much or how you do, please, please know that in my own eyes, and I hope your eyes, I am still a whole and complete someone. I am still me. I am still grandpa, and dad, a friend, and whole and a complete human being. I am in my mind still and have always been a complete person. I am not becoming any less a person simply because I cannot remember like you, talk you do, or think like you do. I know many of you want me to be who I was yesterday, or last year, or the last time they saw me, but I cannot be, nor do I any longer want to be. I have ceased looking back over my shoulder at who I was, and now spend most of my time working on who I am, one day at a time."

Richard

What would I do today if I were brave?

Known as "The Queen of Heavy Mental," Jana describes her music as "psychotherapy you can dance to." With soaring vocals, acoustic arrangements, and meaningful lyrics, Jana Stanfield says that her goal is to use her music to give people a "faith-lift." Her fans say the music is the ideal alternative to Prozac... all the mood elevation with none of the water retention. Jana will provide a concert experience not soon forgotten and wrap up the 2008 KHCA/KCAL Convention and Tradeshow on an upbeat positive high note.
